Independent Reading Activities

The collection of grade-appropriate activities below may be used to enhance the summer reading experience for students. The activities are reflective of different learning styles and several of them focus on high-order tasks.

Elementary Grades: 1st and 2nd (Choose One)

-  Keep a reading log/journal of the book you have read. Include the title, a one-sentence summary of each, and write two or three new words you have learned from your reading.
-  Create a puppet or finger puppet about your favorite character.
-  Using a shoe box, create a diorama (three-dimensional scene which includes models of people, buildings, plants, and animals) of an important scene in the book.
-  Cut out magazine pictures to make a collage or poster illustrating the idea of the book.
-  Draw a comic strip of your favorite scene.

Elementary Grades: 3rd, 4th and 5th (Choose One)

-  Make a poster advertising your book so someone else will want to read it.
-  Create a dramatic monologue for a character in a specific scene. What are they thinking/feeling at that moment? Why?
-  Create a collage around themes or characters in the book.
-  Build a miniature stage setting of a scene in the book. Include a written explanation of the scene.
-  Send a postcard from one of the characters. Draw a picture on one side; write the message on the other.
-  Design a T-shirt that promotes your book.
